There are four discreet steps involved in the completion of a Payment Transaction.

These are set out at Clauses 6 to 9:

6. PLACING AN ORDER

- 6.1. To conclude a Payment Transaction in a Supported Currency Pair, You must first place an Order by:
 - 6.1.1. using the means set out at Clause 6.2 to request Us to:
 - 6.1.1.1. purchase a specified amount of foreign currency for You; or
 - 6.1.1.2. pay funds to a Beneficiary in Your local currency; and
 - 6.1.2. providing Us with:
 - 6.1.2.1. Your nominated Funding Account, including names, numbers and particulars of the account holders or, where it is to be directly funded from Your Global Account, then confirmation of same;
 - 6.1.2.2. the amount to be transferred and the currency in which the Payment Transaction is to be effected;
 - 6.1.2.3. full Beneficiary details where We do not already have these on the Account, though in certain circumstances this can be provided after the Order is placed;
 - 6.1.2.4. the purpose for making the Payment Transaction;
 - 6.1.2.5. the applicable method You wish to be used for the Final Transfer (the “Payment Rail”), and confirmation of Your acceptance of the costs and fees associated with that Payment Rail;
 - 6.1.2.6. the date on which You want Us to make the Future Dated Payment (if this facility is available); and
 - 6.1.2.7. such other information or documentation that We may require, including but not limited to additional specific requirements in some jurisdictions (such as those required for currency control reasons).
- 6.2. The means by which You may place an Order are by providing the information set out at Clause 6.1.2 and contacting Us:
 - 6.2.1. over the telephone by a User (calls are typically recorded – for more information on this see Clause 5.1.2);
 - 6.2.2. by email or file transfer, noting that in certain cases We may permit You to enter multiple Orders on a single file transfer. We refer to such functionality where You upload a batch of transactions as a “Mass Upload”. Please refer to clause 7 of the Receivables Terms for more details on Mass Uploads, noting that this functionality can be used for the Payables Service or the Receivable Service; or
 - 6.2.3. by logging into Your Account. Note for Payment Transactions with a value of less than €100,000, this is the sole means of placing Orders and options 6.2.1 and 6.2.2 are not permitted.
- 6.3. You are solely responsible for ensuring that all details You provide are correct. We will do everything We reasonably can to rectify any errors, inaccuracies, or omissions in Your Order once You make Us so aware, but such errors, inaccuracies or omissions may lead to a delay or failure in processing Your Order. We will not be liable for any loss, damage, cost or expense suffered by You or any third party as a result of any such errors, inaccuracies or omissions in Your placement of an Order.
- 6.4. Where Dual Authorisation is in place on Your Account, the Order is only placed when the final authorisation is confirmed on Your behalf. This means that We will not negotiate with You until the final authorisation is confirmed and the Order is placed.
- 6.5. We may act on an Order from, or purporting to be from, You or the Users, until We have received prior written notice to the contrary and a reasonable opportunity to act on such notice. Any reference to the means by which We may receive an Order from You or the Users includes, but shall not be limited to, those means set out at Clause 6.2.

7. ENTRY INTO A CONTRACT

- 7.1. Your Order constitutes a request from You for Us to negotiate a Payment Transaction with You. Our response to Your Order represents a legal offer from Us to You to enter a Payment Transaction subject to certain conditions set out in the offer from Us. This offer must be accepted by You, following which the Contract is formed subject to these Terms. Confirmation of the Contract shall be emailed to You (the “Booking Confirmation”) by Us after the Contract has been formed.
- 7.2. The Contract can be concluded by following the means of placing an Order set out at Clause 6, notwithstanding which, We reserve Our right to engage with You by whatever means We reasonably deem most appropriate. In each instance, Your acceptance (and in all cases acceptance by You means by the Users), by whatever means, serves as Your acceptance of these Terms as governing the offer made by TransferMate to enter the Contract for a Payment Transaction. Please note that where Dual Authorisation has been set up by You, then acceptance shall mean the acceptance by a second User.
- 7.3. Non-negotiation of Orders:
 - 7.3.1. We reserve the right to request further documents and information before entering negotiations with You in respect of an Order;
 - 7.3.2. Payment Transactions are subject to a minimum and maximum transaction value determined by You and approved by Us, and We may decline to negotiate an Order which falls outside of these value points, notwithstanding that prior Orders of equivalent value were not declined; and
 - 7.3.3. We may notify You of Our refusal to negotiate an Order without giving any reason. We will have no liability to You as a result of doing so.
- 7.4. Cancellation of Payment Transactions:
 - 7.4.1. In the event of You having formed a Contract with Us in error or which You subsequently wish to cancel, You are advised to contact Us immediately on receipt of the Booking Confirmation requesting the Contract to be cancelled. Any loss arising on such cancellation arising from Our being required to unwind the acquisition of foreign exchange will be charged to You and payable by You, and there are additional cancellation fees attaching to the Cancellation (as defined and set out in the Fee Schedule). Should You reach the conclusion that You have formed a Contract with Us in error and take no steps to contact Us and do not complete the Lodgement (as provided for in Clause 8), then this shall also be regarded by Us as a Cancellation and the same fees and exposures shall apply. Late or incomplete settlement shall incur default interest on the total amount due, at a compound rate of 5% per annum, calculated daily and payable to Us on the date that the payment is made.
- 7.5. Non-execution or Delays in Payment Transactions:
 - 7.5.1. Notwithstanding the formation of a Contract, We hereby reserve a contractual right to delay or not to complete the execution of the Payment Transaction in instances where:
 - 7.5.1.1. abnormal and unforeseeable circumstances beyond Our control which prohibit or limit Us executing the Payment Transaction;
 - 7.5.1.2. legal obligations covered by Applicable Law and regulations make the execution of the Payment Transaction a potentially illegal or non-compliant action;
 - 7.5.1.3. Our Anti-Money Laundering Policy requires so, or where a requirement under Our Anti-Money Laundering Policy cannot be met to Our satisfaction;
 - 7.5.1.4. due to the automation of the Service, errors in quoted rates may have occurred leading to the provision to You of erroneous rates at the time of placing the Order, including where You have requested a rate over the weekend as an exception;
 - 7.5.1.5. errors, inaccuracies or omissions in Your Order may mean that a Payment Transaction cannot be completed as scheduled; or
 - 7.5.1.6. We are unable to verify the source of funds and therefore cannot process the Lodgement in accordance with the Applicable Law.

- 7.5.2. We shall endeavour to inform You as soon as possible in the event of non-execution of the Payment Transaction and in any event no later than the next Banking Day, together with the reason for the failure unless We are prevented (in Our sole but reasonable discretion) from disclosing same to You. We shall endeavour to complete the Payment Transaction if the impediment preventing execution can be removed, or where applicable, when the errors, inaccuracies or omissions are corrected.
- 7.5.3. Where the provisions of Clause 7.5.1 lead to the non-completion of or a delay in execution of a Payment Transaction, any commitments provided by Us as to the timing of making the Final Transfer may be adversely impacted, and therefore We accept no liability for the non-completion of, or a delay to completing a Payment Transaction. Where We need to cancel the Payment Transaction as a result of Your actions, and return the Lodgement to You, We shall charge You the Cancellation Fees and other such costs as provided for in Clause 7.4.1.

8. FUNDING THE PAYMENT TRANSACTION

- 8.1. You may complete the Lodgement by one of the following means, noting not all options are available to every Customer and in respect of every Supported Currency Pair:
- 8.1.1. Unless You have set up a pull payment as provided for at Clause 8.1.2, the default mechanism by which You are expected to make the Lodgement is by payment of a wire transfer or electronic funds transfer in the currency agreed. We will provide You with the requisite details of the Nominated Account at the time at which the Contract is agreed, and it is Your obligation to ensure You use the correct Nominated Account. There is no need for You to separately effect a Lodgement where You chose to use existing funds in Your Global Account to fund the Payment Transaction. In this instance the provisions of Clause 8.1.3 shall apply.
- 8.1.2. You may have the option to request to make Lodgements by Direct Debit ('DD') or Automated Clearing House ('ACH') pull payments however this is not available in every territory, nor may You transfer funds out of Your Global Account by DD/ACH payment. You acknowledge that (1) We are under no obligation to provide You with this option, (2) We may withdraw this from You at any time, and (3) We shall require that You make at least one transfer by the means set out at Clause 8.1.1. You confirm that You understand the risk and limitations attaching to the use of DD / ACH as set out in Clause 8.8.
- 8.1.3. Where You have Pre-Funded a Global Account as provided for in Clause 8.3, the Global Account may operate as the Nominated Account from which You may authorise Us to fund Payment Transactions directly. Please note that there are time limits associated with the period of time that monies may be held ("Holding Limit") in a Global Account or otherwise (please refer to our Website at www.transfermate.com/GA-HoldingPeriods for details of these), and We shall be required to return such funds to You where the Holding Limit has been reached. For more details on this, please review the Global Account Terms. Where We provide You with a Routing Reference Number only, then in accordance with the Holding Limit, You are not permitted to effect Pre-Funding.
- 8.2. You are legally obliged to complete the Lodgement of the agreed amount with the Booking Reference and with all of the information We require from You including as detailed in Clause 6.1.2, within 2 Business Days of the date on which the Contract is entered (the "Settlement Date"). Accordingly, this Contract is only suitable if You are able to deliver, on or before the Settlement Date, the Lodgement in the currency/funds You have agreed to buy from Us, together with all of the necessary information required on that Payment Transaction. We may extend the Settlement Date up to the start of the fifth Business Day after the date on which the Contract is entered, in order to allow You more time to meet these requirements, but this extension shall be provided entirely at Our discretion. You should place no reliance on this potential extension and understand that You risk a breach of Contract if You fail to make the Lodgement in full and by the end of the second Business Day (refer to Clause 8.5 for the consequences of same). We refer to the effecting of a Lodgement after the Contract has been entered as "Post- Funding”.

- 8.3. It may also be possible to pre-fund the Lodgement (“Pre-Funding”), i.e., to make the Lodgement in advance of entering the Contract for the Payment Transaction, by using funds already in the Global Account or transferring funds into the Global Account with or without having an identifiable Payment Transaction. You may then instruct Us that You wish Us to use the Global Account to fund the Payment Transaction. Where required and in cases where the Pre-Funding was not authorised or carried out in such a way that is in breach of the Terms, TransferMate reserves its right to return amounts sent to Us by Pre-Funding to the original Funding Account (where available) or another verified account in Your name which has previously been provided to Us, at Our discretion. You agree to cooperate fully with TransferMate in this regard, and note that the return of Pre-Funding Lodgement may incur costs on TransferMate, and You agree that We may net these off from the Lodgement before returning the funds to You. Pre-Funding is not to be confused with Future Dated Payments, as in a Future Dated Payments the Contract for the Payment Transaction has been agreed prior to the Lodgement.
- 8.4. Delivery of the Lodgement shall be by use of one of the methods set out at Clause 8.1. Under no circumstances shall We accept a Lodgement by any other means, even if We have previously permitted such alternative means of making a Lodgement.
- 8.5. Please refer to Clause 7.4.1 for the consequences of failing to make the Lodgement in full and by the Settlement Date.
- 8.6. Unless otherwise agreed with You in accordance with Clause 8.1.2, We do not have nor do We request, any access to the Funding Account and shall not unilaterally debit funds from Your Funding Account, unless Your Funding Account is a Global Account and We are invoking Our right to collect Fees and Charges from the Global Account, or We are returning funds to You which have reached the time limits as detailed in 8.1.3.
- 8.7. Where You make the Lodgement but there is missing information or We have a reasonable concern over the way in which the Lodgement is effected (including if there is a concern the Lodgement was from an unauthorised third party account or was made in breach of the Applicable Law or where We may reasonably believe or suspect that such Lodgement may not meet the standards in Our Anti-Money Laundering Policy), then We reserve Our right to delay making the Final Transfer. Such retained Lodgements shall not bear interest against Us and are subject to the provisions of Clause 7.5. If You wish to receive funds from third parties, then You may request Us to permit receipt of funds from third parties directly into Your Global Account where applicable, or You may wish to apply for, and be accepted for, the Receivables Service (as defined in Schedule 1).
- 8.8. Risks and limitations associated with the use of ACH/DD:
- 8.8.1. It is imperative that You ensure that all details supplied by You on the Mandate are correct and valid, and that only authorised signatories on Your Funding Account have signed this Mandate, and confirm You shall indemnify Us for any losses incurred by Us as a result of errors made by You on the Mandate.
- 8.8.2. You are obliged to ensure that (1) there are sufficient funds in Your Funding Account to meet the direct debit payment and (2) sufficient funds remain in Your Funding Account until the direct debit has cleared and settled into the Nominated Account. If a Lodgement by way of DD/ACH does not reach the Nominated Account due to insufficient funds or for any other reason, You must then complete the Lodgement by way of wire transfer to Us so that the Lodgement is not delayed. TransferMate shall never facilitate a shortfall from You, nor do We offer any credit facility where You are delayed in completing a Lodgement.
- 8.8.3. Where a Lodgement by Mandate gives You chargeback rights (which allows You to reverse a Lodgement), it is a condition of Us permitting You to use this method of Lodgement that You shall only exercise this chargeback right if We have breached this Agreement or there was an Unauthorised Transaction as a direct result of Our error. You confirm that You will not exercise Your chargeback right for any other reason, including a dispute with the Beneficiary or if there are insufficient funds in Your Funding Account, and in the event of You exercising a chargeback in such a scenario and in breach of the provisions of this Clause, You shall immediately make good the loss that We incur on demand by transferring the funds to Us by wire transfer, no later than the end of the next Business Day after You exercise this right. Further, if We need to investigate or take any actions in connection with a chargeback raised by You, We reserve Our rights to charge You for Our costs in doing so where We conclude that You have not adhered to this Clause, and shall bring this Clause to the attention of the arbiter of the chargeback dispute.

- 8.8.4. We reserve the right to revoke the option of making Lodgements by DD/ACH payments where any DD/ACH payment made by You is reversed from the Nominated Account.
- 8.8.5. We reserve the right to limit the amount of funds to be taken by Mandate.
- 8.8.6. If a Mandate is inactive for a period of 9 months or more, We reserve the right to deactivate the option to pay by DD/ACH without prior notice to You or to request You to update the Mandate.
- 8.8.7. In order to cancel a Mandate, You must contact Your bank to cancel. TransferMate cannot do this on Your behalf.

9. COMPLETION OF THE FINAL TRANSFER BY TRANSFERMATE

9.1. Processing the Final Transfer:

- 9.1.1. The time at which We receive the Lodgement in cleared funds in the Nominated Account and the Payment Rail selected determines the time at which We can process the Payment Transaction. Same Day Processing is possible in respect of Pre-Funding and also for certain Payment Transfers, dependent on applicable time zones and whether banks in all countries impacted by the Payment Transaction are open, however We undertake that We shall process the Payment Transaction and make the Final Transfer no later than the next Banking Day following the receipt of the Lodgement in cleared funds, as shall be further set out when presenting You with the potential Payment Rails applicable to the Final Transfer.
- 9.1.2. The Payment Rail You ultimately select is Your decision. We will enable a functional Payment Rail as default, but if You determine that You wish to select another Payment Rail, then it is at Your risk and may lead to the Final Transfer being delayed or not being completed. The final fee applicable to the Payment Rail You select is dependent on a number of factors and shall be provide to You at the time of placing the Order.
- 9.1.3. In certain exceptional scenarios, We may agree to making the Final Transfer in advance of the Lodgement being received in cleared funds. We have no obligation to do this and in the event that We provide this to You, additional fees may be required by Us to address the cost to Us of same.
- 9.1.4. The amount credited by way of Final Transfer to the Beneficiary will be net of fees, charges, commissions and any interest due.
- 9.1.5. Where there is a mismatch between the currency in which You instruct Us to make the Final Transfer and the currency of the account of the Beneficiary (the “Beneficiary Currency”), then We reserve Our right to convert the funds into the Beneficiary Currency in order to complete the Final Transfer, and You hereby give Us an implicit instruction to effect this FX conversion where such a mismatch arises.

9.2. A confirmation of the Final Transfer (the “Payment Confirmation”) will be issued to Your nominated email address. If You do not receive a Payment Confirmation within 24 hours of the date on which the Lodgement is made or within four (4) Banking Days from the date of the Contract was entered, it is recommended that You contact Us to enable Us to check the reason for the absence of the Payment Confirmation. The Payment Confirmation will detail the information at a Clause 9.2.1 to 9.2.6 and provides the means of enabling You to identify the Payment Transaction, which shall also be provided to the Beneficiary unless You expressly request Us not to make such disclosure. By hereby permitting such disclosure, You agree to hold Us, Our Affiliates, subcontractors and partners harmless for any damage or loss suffered by You resulting from enquiries from the Beneficiary or User. We represent and warrant that We will exercise ordinary care in releasing this information;

- 9.2.1. the Booking Reference, which enables You to identify the Payment Transaction;

- 9.2.2. the date on which the Payment Transaction was effected;
 - 9.2.3. the value date of the Payment Transaction;
 - 9.2.4. a breakdown of the fees and charges payable by You;
 - 9.2.5. the exchange rate used and the amount of the Final Transfer after the currency conversion, including where there was a mismatch with the Beneficiary Currency as provided for in Clause 9.1.5; and
 - 9.2.6. additional and further information as may be requested by You subject to an additional charge.
- 9.3. Upon You becoming aware of any Unauthorised Transaction or otherwise incorrectly executed Payment Transaction, You must notify Us without delay. Where We establish that the Payment Transaction was erroneously effected by Us, We shall refund to You, the amount of the erroneous Payment Transaction plus any charges thereon. In the event of a suspected Unauthorised Transaction, it is Your responsibility to promptly notify Us of the relevant details and, if You do not notify Us of a suspected Unauthorised Transaction as soon as You become aware of it, it will significantly impact on Our ability to trace and return the funds. Such notification must be made at the latest within 3 months of the debit date of the Payment Transaction (or within 13 months where You are a non-corporate), otherwise You will lose any right to have the matter corrected or money refunded.
- 9.4. You agree and acknowledge that We shall have no obligation to make a Final Transfer for the reasons set out in Clause 8.7 and Clause 7.5, and acknowledge that TransferMate does not accept liability or responsibility for any loss, cost or expense incurred or suffered by You in connection with Us invoking Our rights under these Clause, including because You are subsequently in default of Your obligations to Us or a third party.
- 9.5. In certain instances, TransferMate may rely on one of its Affiliates to receive Lodgements from You or make Final Transfers for Us, however the obligation on delivering the Services to You shall always be with TransferMate.
- 9.6. In the event that We have completed the Final Transfer before receiving cleared and settled funds from You, including for example where a DD/ACH payment is reversed, a DD request is cancelled or a payment is disputed, You will be liable to pay Us the amount of the Final Transfer plus interest at the rate of 5% per annum, together with any relevant fees set out in the Fee Schedule.
- 9.7. TransferMate is not responsible for any fees or charges that may be imposed by the financial institutions associated with the payment facilities You nominate.
- 9.8. Where the Final Transfer is returned to Us because of an error on the Payment Instruction or because the Beneficiary has rejected the funds transfer, then We shall where possible open a Global Account in the same currency as the Final Transfer and place the funds in there, awaiting further instruction from You. Where We cannot open a Global Account in this currency, We will return the funds to You subject to any additional checks and controls We are required to do.

 - 19.4.2. the other Party is or becomes insolvent or unable to pay its debts or suspends or threatens to suspend making payments with respect to all or any class of its debts;

 - 19.4.5. a composition in satisfaction of debts, scheme of arrangement, or compromise or arrangement with creditors or members (or any class of creditors or members) has been proposed, sanctioned or approved in relation to the other Party;
 - 19.4.6. an encumbrancer takes possession of, or a trustee or administrative receiver or similar officer is appointed in respect of, all or any part of the business or assets of the other Party, or distress or any form of execution is levied or enforced upon or sued out against any such assets and is not discharged within 7 calendar days of being levied, enforced or sued out;
 - 19.4.7. anything analogous to any of the events described in Clauses 19.4.2 to 19.4.6 inclusive, occurs under the laws of any applicable jurisdiction;

 - 19.4.9. it is required or advised to do so by any applicable regulator or government entity after such notice as is reasonable in the circumstances.
- 19.5. We shall deem Your Account dormant if there has been no activity on the Account for 12 months. 20. ASSIGNMENT AND SUB-CONTRACTING

- 20.1. Neither Party shall, nor shall purport to assign, transfer, charge or otherwise deal with any of its rights or obligations under these Terms or grant, declare, create or dispose of a right or interest in it without the prior written consent of the other Party.

21. PROVISION OF SERVICES TO SUBSIDIARIES / AFFILIATES

- 21.1. The sole recipient of the Services shall be You. In the event that any of Your Affiliates wish to benefit from Your access to the Services, You may either include the details of these Affiliates on the Application Form (together with a certified Corporate Chart), or may add Affiliates by way of making a request to Us accompanied by a certified Corporate Chart. - 21.2. You understand that TransferMate has no duty to any Affiliate, and that all Services provided and legal obligations are owed solely to You.
- 21.3. You understand that TransferMate can only provide Services (1) where TransferMate is licensed to do so (or in certain circumstances, where Your request for Your Affiliates to receive the Services is approved by TransferMate), (2) where the business of any Affiliate complies with TransferMate and its banking partners internal risk policy, and (3) where TransferMate has suitable accounts in the currencies required.

- 21.5.2. what documentation (if any) it shall require You to provide on behalf of each Affiliate; and
- 21.5.3. whether You and each Affiliate are to be permitted to fund Payment Transactions from all, some or none of the Funding Accounts.

- 23.5. Severability: If and to the extent that any provision of these Terms is held to be illegal, void or unenforceable, such provision shall be given no effect and be deemed not to be included in these Terms, without invalidating any of the remaining provisions of these Terms.
- 23.6. Waiver: Unless expressly agreed, no release, discharge, amendment, modification or variation shall constitute a general waiver of any provisions of these Terms, nor shall it affect any rights, obligations or liabilities under or pursuant to these Terms which have already accrued up to the date of such release, discharge, amendment, modification or variation, and the rights and obligations of the parties under or pursuant to these Terms shall remain in full force and effect, except and only to the extent that they are so released, discharged, amended, modified or varied.
- 23.7. Failures and Delays: No failure or delay by either Party in exercising any right or remedy provided by law under or

- 23.8. Remedies Cumulative: The provisions of these Terms, and the rights and remedies of the parties under these Terms, are cumulative and are without prejudice and in addition to any rights or remedies a Party may have whether arising under common law, equity, statute, custom or otherwise. - 23.11. Set-Off Right: In addition to other remedies available to TransferMate, if You fail to pay any amount then due under this Agreement, TransferMate may set-off such amount against any amount payable by TransferMate to You. You must not set-off any amounts You owe to TransferMate against any amounts TransferMate owes to You. TransferMate is entitled to set-off against any amounts due to it by You, any amounts received by TransferMate from or on Your behalf. TransferMate may determine the application of any amounts which are to be set-off at its own discretion.

Schedule 1: Additional Terms for Receivables Service

Words not defined in this Schedule shall have the meaning set out in the Clause 1.2 of the Terms

Introduction:

These terms (the “Receivables Terms”) are applicable if We have agreed to Your application to avail of TransferMate’s Receivables Service whereby, in addition to being able to engage with Us as a Payer in a Payment Transaction, You direct TransferMate to receive payments from a third party in order for that third party, whether to discharge an Invoice or otherwise receive a payment by way of a Receivables Transaction (as defined below). As it pertains to the Receivables Service, if there is any inconsistency between this Schedule and the Terms or other Schedules herein, this Schedule will prevail. The provisions of the Fee Schedule shall be incorporated herein and the fees pertaining to a Payables Transaction as set out in the Fee Schedule, shall apply mutatis mutandis to Receivables Transactions.

Definitions:

- Invoice means in this context an invoice, bill or other contractual debt which can be evidenced, which is owing to You and which is due from the Payer;
- Invoice Reference means the reference number specific to Your Invoice, which We will give You, which will enable You, Us and the Payer to identify Your request for payment.
- Payer means a person, business or organization that is making a payment to You;
- Portal means the customisable website on which the Receivables Service may be delivered to You and references elsewhere to Platform shall be read as including the Portal where applicable.
- Receivables Account means the bank account(s) held in Your name, which You may nominate on the Portal for the receipt of the Final Transfer, and does not include Your Global Account where applicable, noting a Global Account may not always be available to You depending on Your location.
- Receivables Service means the facility offered by Us whereby We enable third parties to transfer funds to You.
- Receivables Transaction means the process by which You ultimately receive funds from a Payer in accordance with Your instructions.

1. Basis for the Relationship

- 1.1. You confirm that You understand that in order for Us to collect funds on Your behalf pursuant to a Receivables Transaction:
 - 1.1.1. You hereby appoint Us for the sole purpose of collecting funds from the Payer acting under Your express authority (known for convenience hereafter as the “Power of Attorney” but mutually understood as being an effective agency appointment whether or not it meets the execution formalities required in some countries to create a formal power of attorney);
 - 1.1.2. You understand that We have the power to issue a funds receipt confirmation on Your behalf to the Payer; and
 - 1.1.3. You understand that in the event that any actions of the Payer cause a loss to Us (as specified in Clause 6 of this Schedule), You are legally obliged to make good that loss on demand from Us.
- 1.2. There is no legal relationship between the Payer and Us, and at all times, We are engaging with the Payer as Your authorised representative, under the Power of Attorney.

2. Creation of the Portal

- 2.1. To enable Us to conclude Receivables Transactions on Your behalf You may first create the Portal by:
 - 2.1.1. complying with the Account Opening Process;
 - 2.1.2. logging into Your newly created Account with details provided during the Account Opening Process; and
 - 2.1.3. providing Us with such additional information that We may reasonably deem necessary during this process.

- 2.2. We shall notify You that the above steps have been completed and provide You with the means by which You can access the Portal. You shall also be provided with administrative access to enable You to host, develop, design and maintain the Portal.
- 2.3. Depending on the set-up and the means by which You access the Portal, You may have the option to:
 - 2.3.1. upload Your company logo to the Portal which must comply with the parameters specified by Us at the time (including using a specific file type, size limit and dimensions); and
 - 2.3.2. create a unique URL (if required) which is neither a breach of IPR nor offensive or misleading.

3. Uploading Invoices and Concluding a Receivables Transaction

- 3.1. In respect of each Invoice, You shall upload some or all of the following to the Portal in the form specified by Us at the time:
 - 3.1.1. the correct Invoice Reference;
 - 3.1.2. the Supported Currency Pair in which You wish the Payer to pay Us the funds (please refer to Clause 6.1 and 6.2 of this Schedule for details of how You may be required to assume risk for the Payer concluding the transaction in this currency);
 - 3.1.3. Payer details (this should be done once and We shall retain these on file for future Receivables Transactions);
 - 3.1.4. outstanding amount to be paid and Invoice due date;
 - 3.1.5. confirmation, following receipt of funds from the Payer, that You want Us to retain the funds in Your Global Account (where available) or transfer them externally to Your Receivables Account; and
 - 3.1.6. such other information as may be required from You to enable Us process the Receivable Transaction.
- 3.2. Your uploading of the information at Clause 3.1 of this Schedule constitutes a request from You to Us to negotiate a Receivables Transaction with You in respect of the Invoice(s). The response to Your request may provide applicable exchange rates for each currency entered and shall confirm (to the best of Our knowledge but subject always to Clause 5 of this Schedule) Our ability to process the Receivables Transactions. This response represents Our legal offer to You to contract with Us to enter Receivables Transactions. This offer must be accepted by You, by approving the Receivables Transaction, following which a legal contract is formed between You and TransferMate, subject to these Receivables Terms (the "Receivables Contract").
- 3.3. Our commitment under the Receivables Contract is to issue an e-mail to the Payer (a "Collection Email") and to engage with a Payer on Your behalf, but is conditional on Your understanding that We:
 - 3.3.1. have liberty to use whatever means We deem appropriate to carry out Your instruction;
 - 3.3.2. may require a copy of the Invoice prior to completion of the Receivables Transaction, notwithstanding that We do not require this from You when uploading the documents and information set out at Clause 3.1 of this Schedule.
 - 3.3.3. do not pursue Payers beyond providing them with means of making a payment to You;
 - 3.3.4. cannot compel a Payer to participate in the Receivables Transaction;
 - 3.3.5. may conclude following a review of the Receivables Transaction, that We cannot accept funds from the Payer, whether for regulatory reasons or as a result of Our risk appetite;
 - 3.3.6. act on Your behalf as a collection agent or similar mandated under the Power of Attorney, and only have a right to engage with the Payer while You authorise Us to do so, and as long as You do not revoke that authorisation;
 - 3.3.7. shall ensure that funds received by Us from the Payer are lodged in with Your instructions as further detailed at Clause 8 of this Schedule; and
 - 3.3.8. shall issue receipt confirmation on Your behalf to the Payer on receipt of the Lodgement, stating that the Payer's financial obligation to You is satisfied, provided that the Payer does not issue a recall as explained in Clause 6.3 of this Schedule.

4. Engagement with the Payer

- 4.1. Failure by You to notify the Payer of (i) Your reliance on the Receivables Transaction to discharge an Invoice and (ii) the impact to You of the Payer not making the Lodgement to Us, is likely to impact on the effectiveness of the Receivables Transaction. We do not prescribe the means by which such notification should be made by You, but any errors made by You in communications between You and the Payer are entirely Your responsibility.
- 4.2. You may request that We send Payers the Collection Email on Your behalf and provide them with the Invoice Reference in order that they can discharge invoices to You. In such a scenario, We shall always need You to upload the Invoice.
- 4.3. You have the option of requesting that Your Portal's URL is attached to the Collection Email, by adding it to the Invoice(s) template from Your accounting software. In addition, You have the option of using Your logo on the Collection Email. These options shall be available to You to select on the Portal, however the options may not be possible on every Collection Email.
- 4.4. As part of issuing the Collection Email, We will set out the means by which the Payer can comply with the Receivables Transaction, and any documentation required from the Payer in order to allow the Payer participate in the Receivables Transaction. We reserve the right to send reminders to the Payer when funds have not been received, but ultimate responsibility for ensuring the Payer completes the Receivables Transaction rests with You.
- 4.5. If the Payer notifies Us that they do not wish to engage in the Receivables Transaction, You shall be updated within 2 Business Days of Our being made aware, and You may be asked to make good any loss caused to Us as a result (as set out in Clause 6 of this Schedule).
- 4.6. In the event that We receive funds whether from a designated Payer or otherwise and (1) We cannot allocate such funds to Your Receivables Transaction or (2) the Lodgement cannot be authorised, then, We may be required to return the funds to the Payer. Where You are able to nominate Your Global Account (where available) for receipt of funds, then this mitigates the possibility of issue 1 arising as We shall be able to allocate the funds to Your Global Account directly. We will make reasonable efforts to resolve an issue arising under this Clause, but You acknowledge that this may not always be possible to resolve.

5. Limitations on the Receipt of Funds

- 5.1. The Portal is intended to contain a list of the countries into which We are able to send Invoices on Your behalf and also the available currencies. While We make reasonable efforts to manage this listing, We do not warrant that this listing is current or accurate at all times.
- 5.2. In some circumstances, We may not be able to collect from a country or in a currency notwithstanding what has been set out on the Portal, or We may be prohibited from dealing with a particular Payer as set out in Clause 3.3.5 of this Schedule. We hereby reserve Our right to bring this limitation or restriction to Your attention after the Receivables Contract has been entered without incurring any liability on Our part, and as such Our ability to fulfil the Receivables Contract is conditional on Us being able to receive funds from a proposed Payer or from a Payer's country or denominated in a specific currency from the time the Receivables Contract is entered until the funds from the Payer have been received by Us.
- 5.3. In some countries there are regulatory or export restrictions on the frequency and value of funds that can be remitted from that country at one time in a single transaction. TransferMate continually monitors these restrictions and makes reasonable efforts to notify You prior to entering the Receivables Transaction where the limit may impact on Our ability to perform the Receivables Contract. However where We are prevented by such restriction from performing the Receivables Contract, We shall have no liability to You for any loss or damage You may incur as a result. We shall notify You of the restriction and offer You the option to cancel the Receivables Transaction or amend the amount being sought. It is always Your obligation to be aware of the Applicable Law and restrictions attaching to the remittance of funds from the Payer and the Payer's country of residence.

6. Your Legal Liability as a result of entering a Receivables Contract

- 6.1. If You, as part of entering the Receivables Contract, require Us to book an FX rate (for example to enable the Payer pay Us in the Payer's local currency), then We shall be required to acquire that local currency at the point at which the Payer commits to discharging the Invoice. This creates a legal obligation on You to ensure that the Payer makes the Lodgement to conclude the Receivables Transaction, and in the event that there is a failure by the Payer to make the Lodgement in full and by the Settlement Date, this shall be a breach of Your obligations under the Receivables Contract. In such event, We will close out the Order at its then prevailing market rates and any FX loss, costs or other damages incurred by Us (collectively a "Loss") as a result shall be recoverable in full from You on demand by Us.
- 6.2. In certain scenarios, as will be notified to You prior to entering the Contract, We acquire the currency immediately following the entry of the Receivables Contract, and in that event We may incur a Loss. This Loss shall be recoverable in full from You on demand by Us.
- 6.3. The default means for Payer making a Lodgement are set out on the Portal and may be fixed by You prior to entering the Receivables Contract. Where the Payer is limited to making the Lodgement by wire only, then subject to Clauses 6.1, 6.2 and 6.4 of this Schedule, You assume no additional liability. However in the event that You determine that the Payer may make the Lodgement by way of Direct Debit / ACH or by credit / debit card (and We are agreeable to same), then there is a risk that the Payer may successfully recall the funds from Us after We have made the Final Transfer to You, causing a Loss to Us. In such an event You agree to transfer the amount of the Final Transfer on demand from Us.
- 6.4. You confirm that You have obtained whatever Payer consent is required in accordance with the applicable Data Protection Law to permit Us to contact the Payers, and in the event that We incur a Loss as a result of Your failure to comply with these applicable Data Protection Law, that You shall indemnify Us in full for that Loss.
- 6.5. Late or incomplete settlement of any of the Losses set out herein, shall incur default interest on the total amount due, at a compound rate of 5% per annum above the prime lending rate for the time being in force, calculated daily and payable to Us on the date payment is made.

7. Mass Uploads:

- 7.1. In addition to uploading a single Receivables Transaction as set out in Clause 3.1 of this Schedule, You have the option to use Mass Upload as defined in Clause 6.2.2 of the Terms. Mass Uploads allows You to request multiple Receivables Transactions on a single file.
- 7.2. On request from You, We shall provide You with a template setting out the information required by Us to process a Mass Upload.
- 7.3. You are required to follow this template and produce a statement listing the transaction requests for Mass Upload together with attaching invoice(s) in the following format; PDF, DOCX, XLS, subject to file size limitation as detailed on the Portal. Our requirements and supported formats may be modified by Us from time to time, and We reserve the right to notify You of any modified requirements during the Mass Upload process.
- 7.4. We shall validate that the uploaded file contains the necessary information for Mass Uploads, engage with You where there are errors on the uploaded file, and confirm details of the successful Mass Upload when applicable.
- 7.5. The payment request can be authorised and the Payer contacted once You authorise same by way of tick box confirmation.

8. Receiving the funds from the Payer

- 8.1. On Our receipt of funds from Payer, We shall provide You with email confirmation within 1 Business Day that a specific Invoice Reference has been discharged pursuant to a Receivables Transaction, and advise You if there has been an overpayment (please refer to Clause 8.5 of this Schedule), or an underpayment of the invoiced amount. Where a Payer engages with You directly to pay You using Your Global Account (where available to You), and no Receivables Transaction has been booked, then You will solely receive a notification of a Lodgement to Your Global Account in accordance with the Global Account Terms.

- 8.2. Unless You provide Us with any instruction to the contrary with regard to these funds, they will be retained in the Global Account (where available), in the currency set on that Global Account.
- 8.3. If You do not wish for Us to retain the funds in Your Global Account or where a Global Account is not available to You, then You are required to have set up a default Receivables Account prior to using the Receivables Service, and in the absence of this, TransferMate shall have no alternative, but to retain funds received in Your Global Account.
- 8.4. It is imperative that You ensure We have a functional and up to date Receivables Account set up for You, or that You have opened a Global Account (where available) with Us.
- 8.5. If the Payer transfers more funds to Us than was uploaded on the Invoice, then We shall engage with the Payer on Your behalf to send the funds back to the Payer. Under no circumstances shall We send You a higher amount than was set out on the Invoice.
- 8.6. Where requested or where no Global Account is available to Us, We shall make the transfer to Your Receivables Account within 1 to 2 Business Days of receiving the cleared and settled funds from the Payer. The transfer into Your Receivables Account shall specify the name of the Payer and the Invoice Reference to enable You identify the Receivables Transaction.

Schedule 2: GLOBAL ACCOUNT TERMS

Words not defined in this Schedule shall have the meaning set out in the Clause 1.2 of the Terms

Global Accounts are not presently available for Malaysian resident customers. Instead We provide You with a Routing Reference Number to allow You to better identify Payment Transactions and Receivables Transactions.

Where We refer to Global Accounts within these Terms and the Schedules, We mean the Routing Reference Number and You understand that where there are references to You pre-funding or retaining funds with Us, this is not applicable where We are only able to offer a Routing Reference Number.
